

Window alarm sensors: Purchase and install 40 alarm sensors on lower-level windows and classrooms (compatible with existing alarm system) to detect when a breach occurs. System will also prevent staff from leaving a window open when locking up at night further deterring potential breaches.

